THURSDAY, March 22, 1770. THE NUMBER 202.

VIRGINIA GAZETTE.

LONDON, November 7.

A Newspaper says, that a great perſonage talked a few days ago to a Knight, who has the direction of the new paving of the ſtreets, paid him a compliment upon that ſubject, ſaying, that the ſtate-coach rolled ſmoothly over the new pavement to the Parliament-houſe. The Knight ſaid, that he wiſhed his M—— had a new P—— H——, as well as a new pavement leading to it, for that at preſent it was not ſuitable to the grandeur of this nation. The great perſonage replied, I have no objection to a new P—— H——, but I am determined to keep the old ſtructure.

It is ſaid that a great perſonage has ſignified that he is ſatisfied with the Seals to remain in the poſſeſſion of the preſent Lord Chancellor.

Nov. 9. Some private letters from Berlin mention as a report there, that the King had determined to join the Ruſſians, in caſe the Houſe of Auſtria ſhould attempt to oppoſe the Court of Peterſburgh in the preſent war againſt the Turks.

Mr. Peters applying to Dr. Hill, in a caſe of the gravel, was directed to boil burdock root, and cured by that ſimple medicine. Upon aſking the Doctor what recompence he ſhould make him, he replied, "Tell others who have that ſort of gravel, how eaſily they may be cured."

Nov. 21. We hear that a great perſonage, on whoſe determination the preſent political ſafety of this country depends, has nobly declared, that, as a Briton, he would ſtrenuouſly oppoſe the diſſolving of a certain Houſe; but that, as a ——, he will ever ſupport the guardians of Britiſh liberty, in the poſſeſſion of their conſtitutional rights.—How ſenſibly muſt this declaration affect every ſincere lover of his country! What a bleſſing it is to a free people, that their S——n is more deſirous of protecting their liberties, than ready to avail himſelf of their prejudices, to extend, by exerting, his prerogative!

Nov. 27. A great Magiſtrate of the city of London has received a letter from the Earl of C——, the contents of which, having tranſpired, are ſaid to be as follows: "That, in his opinion, the thanks of the nation were due to the Livery of London, for again electing a man ſo upright, independent, and able, to that high office; and he thought they were due alſo to him, for accepting it at the preſent crisis: That he himſelf had never oppoſed, but aſſiſted the preſent Miniſtry, whilſt they acted upon conſtitutional principles: That he had formed a reſolution never more to engage himſelf in public buſineſs, but that the preſent alarming ſituation of affairs, and the neceſſity of the times, require it of him, and therefore he is determined to do every thing in his power to co-operate with his Lordſhip, in reſtoring the peace and liberties of the nation."

The ſpirited petition lately preſented from an eminent city, has, it is ſaid, been honoured with peculiar marks of diſtinction. "It is the language of liberty, yet the language of allegiance," ſaid a moſt reſpectable perſonage. "Why do not all the people of Great-Britain ſpeak the ſame?"

It is ſaid the celebrated Dr. Muſgrave has abſolutely refuſed to ſign the Devonſhire petition, although he was ſo great a ſticker in the promoting of it.

It was this morning reported, that a certain Governor has declined ever to return any more to his former department in America.

A Gentleman who arrived a few days ago from Liſbon, ſays, it is the prevailing opinion there, that a rupture between Spain and Portugal is unavoidable.

A Gentleman of the Grenades has brought an action for a plea of treſpaſs againſt a Gentleman there, for illegally levying four and a half per centum upon him, contrary to Act of Parliament. The above affair is thought to be nearly as intereſting to the public as thoſe of Mr. Hamden and Mr. Wilkes.

Dec. 9. An American Governor, (who has not been very long in America) lately wrote to a noble Lord, his intimate friend in England, a full account of the ſentiments and opinions which he found prevail among the Americans, in his government; and in particular, he ſaid, that they were as loyal, and as loyal ſubjects, as any the King had; that they had been very much miſrepreſented in England; and concluded with his private ſentiments, which were very unfavourable of the preſent Adminiſtration. The noble Lord, without communicating his intention to any of the Miniſters, ſhewed the letter to a great Perſonage; and a difference between the E. of H. and the E. of P. is ſaid to have been the conſequence, as well as ſome coolneſs towards a certain Miniſter from the great Perſonage himſelf.

The M-- ---y are embarraſſed and perplexed to the laſt degree, and know not which way to extricate themſelves. They dread, beyond conception, the meeting of Parliament, and the leſs the ſpace of time becomes to that event, the more their fears and apprehenſions increaſe. Having no ſettled plan of operations fixed on, notwithſtanding the frequent meetings for that purpoſe, they fear the combat; and depend more on their numbers than the ſtrength of their arguments, or the propriety of their propoſitions.

December 12. The animoſity between this and our ſiſter kingdom, is likely to riſe to a moſt alarming height; as adminiſtration are reſolved to reject the money-bill which takes its riſe in their Houſe of Commons, in return for the treatment which the Privy Council money bill has received from them; which makes it probable that the Iriſh will enter into a ſerious examination of their rights as a nation.

The augmentation bill is come over from Ireland to be ſigned by his Majeſty, and the money-bill has paſſed in that kingdom.

We hear, that a bill for triennial Parliaments, and alſo one for limiting the number of placemen in the Houſe of Commons, will certainly be moved for at the next ſitting of Parliament.

Dec. 16. On Monday Mr. Wilkes will have exactly 4 months to remain in the King's Bench; the term of his impriſonment expiring on the 18th of April.

Dec. 18. By a private correſpondent, reſiding at the Court of Vienna, we are informed, that the young Emperor expreſſes his antipathy to the French every day, more and more; and that his Majeſty has publicly declared at Court, his fixed and determined reſolution of conquering the ſeveral German provinces, which, within this century, have been annexed to France. And further, in order to accompliſh this great and univerſally deſired work, the Miniſters of the Imperial Court talked of reviving a plan, firſt projected by the Empreſs Queen, during the war before laſt; and by which it was propoſed, on the part of the Empreſs, to furniſh Great Britain with 20,000 land forces, who were to be perpetually employed in making rapid deſcents upon the coaſt of France. The number of land forces that are now to be employed in executing the preſent plan, is to be augmented to 30,000, 20,000 of which are to be employed in Britiſh ſhips in Europe; and the remaining 10,000, it is ſaid, are to be ſhipped off, to conquer the remaining French iſlands, in the Weſt Indies. This meaſure, it is reported, is to be carried into execution in April or May next.

A SOLILOQUY.

——"I have deſerved the affections of my ſubjects, and will rely upon them. Our happineſs is interwoven, is incorporated. God has joined them together, let no mortal therefore dare to put them aſunder. To exert prerogative to its full extent, would be to procure a divorce. To exert it in all caſes, in which I have no immediate concern, would be to forfeit what I value more than life—the confidence of future Parliaments, and even the confidence of future ſubjects in general. It is both my intereſt, and my duty, to prevent the three eſtates from encroaching upon the province of each other. With what face, then, can I begin the encroachment, or depart from the conſtitutional line which terminates the ſphere of my prerogative? The liberties taken with the preſent H— of C—— deſerve no countenance, as they have no foundation; general cenſure is no cenſure at all; it is a tribute which often attends deſert. All Parliaments have been blamed more or leſs, and till there be a poſſibility of meeting with one that ſhall pleaſe all parties, it would be in vain to ſtruggle for it. The very impoſſibility is a ſtrong proof of the flouriſhing ſtate of freedom. It is only in a ſtate of ſlavery, that all ſubjects are of one opinion. I ſhould be poor indeed, if the fortune which makes me a K——, forbad me to have a friend. Every one of my ſubjects is my friend? and I am, and will be his! Thoſe who are convinced, that the eſtabliſhment of the family of —— was neceſſary to the ſupport of their civil and religious liberties, were my friends, and muſt ſtill be ſo. I deſire no other throne, than the hearts of my people; and whilſt I ſecure that, ſhall fear no revolution; from a conviction, that the ſame principles, which brought my anceſtors to the C——n, will always be powerful enough to keep it in my family.

KINGSTON (in JAMAICA) Dec. 23.

A Gentleman from Cuba ſays, it was reported there, that General O'Reily having married in Old Spain, the Dutcheſs of Jamaica (ſo called there) by whom he had a ſon: His Catholic Majeſty has offered him both men and money, whenever he ſhould think proper to make a deſcent on that iſland, to recover his wife's fortune, in favour of his ſon.

WILLIAMSBURG, March 22.

On Friday laſt died, Mr. ROBERT DALGLEISH, of Glouceſter county, Merchant.

He was an agreeable companion,
a worthy friend,
an eſteemed arbitrator,
a compaſſionate creditor,
and an upright man.
If religion and morality,
ſo far as they are practiſed in this age,
can enſure happineſs
in a future ſtate,
he has it.

We hear there are very few families who have the ſmall pox now, in the counties of Cumberland and Amelia; they having adopted the ſalutary method of inoculating. Dr. SIMEON HARRIS was the only perſon employed, and has been extremely ſucceſsful. The poor he attended gratis.

 Several pieces for publication are come to hand this week, which, for want of room and time (moſt of them coming late) we are obliged to poſtpone.

Mr. RIND,

A SENSIBLE and ſpirited compoſition, like a brilliant equipage, not only attracts the admiration, but raiſes the curioſity of the public to know the proprietor. The celebrated JUNIUS has changed his perſon above a ſcore times; and ever ſince the appearance of the REMEMBRANCER in your paper, there is ſcarce a man renowned for news paper compoſitions, to whom it has not been attributed. However, the more univerſal vote has given it to Mr. CHARLES JEFFERY SMITH; that Gentleman is therefore hereby called upon, to diſown it, if he is not the author, or to acknowledge it by his ſilence. This is no unfair demand, becauſe patriotiſm is too amiable and ſacred a character to be aſhamed of; nor will the paper loſe any more of its force and efficacy, no more than the Spectator did, from the author's being known. Beſides, as this Gentleman has offered his ſervice to the public in quality of an academical conductor, it will be a ſatisfaction to the public, to be acquainted with his abilities, from ſo glaring a ſpecimen.

OS PUBLICUS.

Mr. RIND,

IF you ſhall think proper to give this firſt number a place in your Gazette, I will ſend you one weekly, and it ſhall always be as ſhort as this, to make room for the Remembrancer. I am your humble ſervant,

A CUSTOMER.

THE APPLAUDER, No. 1,

Humbly inſcribed to the author of the Remembrancer, number 3.

Who'll not applaud when he ſuch lines reads?
Who can refrain from patriotic deeds!
The probe you now may throw away,
And for to cure you need not flay:
Thy ſtill ſmall voice of gentle hints,
Will rouſe their hearts, tho' hard as flints.
You've brought about a ſure reduction,
More joyful far than their deſtruction.

WHEN the delighted eye, with curious attention, glides o'er each line, not gently riſing, calmly ſwelling into patriotic ſtrains, but ruſhing like a torrent impetuous, and deluging whole ſheets with the roaring foaming billows of boiſterous patriotiſm——

"et cauſas volvens ad margina ſluctus,"

How muſt the generous freeborn heart dilate!
What boſom beats not in its country's cauſe!

And how do I rejoice! Oh! ſay in what words; how ſhall I congratulate my country? For ſuch a flood of patriotiſm muſt not only o'erflow and purify that ſtagnant putrid pond, but will undoubtedly beat down, overwhelm, and totally waſh away, by its irreſiſtible force, all obſtacles, even that terrible carrying place; inſomuch that the gallant bark of liberty may and ſhall be carried with amazing rapidity and inconceivable velocity on the accelerated ſwiftly ſtreaming torrent of patriotiſm, from the Gulph of St. Lawrence, to the Gulph of Mexico. Then fear not; oh! do not fear. Raiſe but the whirlwind, nor wonder at the ſtorm.

Thy animating lines, Remembrancer, I ſee
Muſt make Rhode Iſland and Virginia be,
Patriots now aſſuredly.

COMMITTED to Culpeper gaol, on ſuſpicion of being a runaway ſervant, an Iriſhman, who calls himſelf James Burn. By a conviction bill found among the papers, it appears that he was convicted to Maryland in June 1758. His maſter may have him, on paying charges, by applying to THOMAS CLIFTON, GAOLER.

I HEREBY give notice to all thoſe who are indebted to the ſtore lately kept at Major John Baſwell's, in Hanover county, to ſettle their reſpective accounts with Mr. William Donald, who will give conſtant attendance for this purpoſe, at the above mentioned place, till the firſt of September next. As great indulgence has been granted to many of the cuſtomers, it may reaſonably be expected they, in return, will immediately give bond for the balances now remaining due, that, being properly aſcertained, they may be collected with leſs expence and trouble than if the accounts ſtood open. Thoſe who refuſe to comply with this reaſonable requeſt, may depend on their accounts being put into a lawyer's hands, without further delay or reſpect of perſons.

JOHN JOHNSON.

GEORGE RANKIN.

RUN away from the ſubſcriber at Hobbs Hole, on the 5th inſt. (March) a Negro fellow named HARRY, about 5 feet 7 inches high, well made, aged about 27 years, of a yelloviſh black, pretty ſenſible; he generally wore a green waiſtcoat and breeches, with horn buttons on them. It is very probable he is harboured at or about Todd's Bridge in King and Queen county, as he was born and lived there ſeveral years. Any perſon that delivers the ſaid ſlave to me at Hobbs Hole in Eſſex county, ſhall receive fifty ſhillings reward, beſides what the law allows.

TAKEN up in Henrico county, a ſmall bay mare, about four feet 4 inches high, with a long tail and hanging mane, but no brand perceivable Poſted, and appraiſed to 4l. THO^{s}. PLEASANTS JORDAN.

THE lottery made by the ſubſcribers having been publiſhed for drawing the firſt Monday in May, and an act being ſince paſſed againſt lotteries, to commence the firſt day of May next, renders us under a neceſſity of drawing the ſaid lottery before that time. Notice is therefore given that it will be drawn at the market-houſe, in Winchester, the 25th day of April next. The favour is begged of thoſe Gentlemen that have taken tickets to ſell, to take ſome convenient opportunity of returning what remains on hand, by the ſaid time of drawing: Alſo thoſe that have been pleaſed to favour our ſcheme, by taking tickets on credit, are deſired to be particular in paying for them ſoon, as we cannot expect any farther indulgence, unleſs we pay the treaſury a conſiderable ſum this ſpring.

HUMPHREY WELLS,

RUN away from the ſubſcriber, in Charles City county, the 22d of December laſt, a Virginia born Negro woman named EDITH, about 30 years of age, 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, of a yellowiſh complexion, and two of her toes grow together, but on which foot I don't remember. She had on when ſhe went away a ſtriped Virginia cloth petticoat and waiſtcoat, and can read pretty well. It is likely ſhe has changed her dreſs, as ſhe carried ſundry other cloaths with her, and a new Dutch blanket. Whoever takes up the ſaid runaway, and conveys her to me, ſhall have Twenty Shillings reward, if taken in this county, and Thirty Shillings if taken out of it.

3 NICHOLAS HOLT.

WILLIAMSBURG, 7th of March, 1770.

ONE James Ranſone, of Glouceſter, the 23d of November, 1670, demiſed 50 acres of land, which are now in my poſſeſſion, to Abraham Savey and Sarah his wife, for 99 years; and covenanted that he, or his heirs, &c. at the expiration of that time, would make another leaſe, for the like term, to the leſſees, or their heirs, &c. they paying 100 lbs. of tobacco. I long ago purchaſed the right of the leſſees, and ever ſince the expiration of the former term have been, and now am ready to take another leaſe, and pay the tobacco. But I cannot diſcover who is the perſon entitled to the reverſion. If he inclines to ſell his reverſion, I am willing to buy it for what it is worth.

G. WYTHE.

THE ſubſcriber begs leave to inform the Public in general, and her friends in particular, that ſhe has removed from Lefter's ferry, and rented Dr. Carter's large brick houſe, on the Main ſtreet in Williamsburg; where ſhe propoſes to accommodate Ladies and Gentlemen with private lodgings. She has 12 or 14 very good lodging rooms, with fire places to moſt of them, which will hold two or three beds in each; ſhe is willing to rent out ſome of them yearly to ſuch as may incline to find their own beds and furniture. The rooms above are convenient for Gentlemen, thoſe below for Ladies; the houſe conſiſting of two parts and divided lengthwiſe by a brick partition. She has alſo another houſe on the lot, ſeparate from the firſt, with two rooms and fire places below, very ſuitable for a family. Her terms will be entirely regulated by her friends. She is NOW tolerably prepared for the reception of lodgers and horſes, but hopes to be more completely ſo by the enſuing April court.

ANGUS Mc DONALD, } Exrs.
ALEXANDER WHITE, }

January 15, 1770.

WHEREAS I have ſome time ſince purchaſed a tract of land of WILLIAM Mc MAHON, and have executed two bonds to him, for the payment of part of the conſideration agreed on between us, viz. One bond for the payment of FIFTY POUNDS, payable the 15th day of March, in the year 1769, the other for the payment of SEVENTY POUNDS, payable on the 10th day of September, in the year aforeſaid. And whereas I have ſince paid off thoſe bonds, and am glad to take them up, by which it may happen that the ſaid Mc MAHON may injure ſome innocent perſon, by aſſigning over the ſaid bonds for a valuable conſideration: In order to prevent which, I hereby give notice to all perſons not to accept of any aſſignment of either, as I owe no part of the ſaid bonds.

FREDERICKSBURG, March 7, 1770.

RUN away from the ſubſcriber, a tall, ſlender Mulatto man named CHARLES EVANS: He was, I have been informed, formerly the property of Benjamin Waller, Eſq; from which he got into Orange county, where, getting into gaol for debt, he was releaſed by Col. William Taliaferro, for which he bound himſelf for the life of the ſaid Col. Taliaferro, and was by him ſold to Mr. William Walker, and laſt year hired to Capt. George Weedon. Had on when he went away, a red jacket, an under ditto, oznabrigs ſhirt, leather breeches, yarn ſtockings and new ſhoes, a tolerable good hat, and has ſundry other cloaths. I believe he has loſt one of his fore teeth, has grey eyes, and rather a brighter Mulatto than common; he is acquainted on James river, and his being a notorious villain occaſions my advertiſing him, to caution every perſon harbouring or entertaining him: and that he may be apprehended, dealt with, and conveyed as the law directs to BEN: JOHNSTON.

RUN away from the ſubſcriber, in Hanover county, about the laſt of September, a Negro man ſlave named WILL. He is about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, is a very remarkable fellow, has but one eye, and was outlawed ſome time before Chriſtmas. Any perſon that will bring ſaid Negro to me, ſhall have Forty Shillings reward, beſides what the law allows.

Whoever brings the ſaid horſe to me ſhall have 20s. reward, and if ſtolen 30s. on conviction of the thief. MARY HILL.

TAKEN up near Suffolk town, in Nanſemond county, a dark grey horſe, about 4 feet 8 inches high, with a hanging mane and bob tail, there appears ſomething like a brand on the right buttock, and is ſuppoſed to be 14 or 15 years old. Appraiſed to 4l. 10s.

THE ſubſcriber, who has been regularly bred to the practice of PHYSIC and SURGERY, gives this public notice, that he begins to inoculate on the 15th of September next, at his houſe, which ſtands about the diſtance of one half mile from Baltimore town, on a healthy ſituation, with an agreeable proſpect.
